

Protect Your Belongings

Renters Insurance

You've worked hard to buy the things you like. Protect your belongings with renters insurance. Your landlord's policy may not cover personal property like your TV, stereo, clothes and CDs. You'll need to take care of it on your own. Less than a dollar a day will help protect your personal property.

Renters insurance covers replacement costs in the event of damage or theft of your furniture, clothing, jewelry and electronics. It also includes personal liability coverage if someone is injured in your apartment.

Contact the Wells Fargo personal banker on the attached card to find out more about insurance and how you can help protect what you value most.
